DESCRIPTION

Rules and regulations "UNESCO-L'ORÉAL: For Women In Science International Awards 2022 Edition" - Life and Environmental Sciences.

Created in 1998, the L'Oréal-UNESCO For Women in Science International Awards recognize and support eminent women in science throughout the world. Each year, five Laureates are recognized for their contributions to the advancement of science, in Life and Environmental Sciences or Physical Sciences, Mathematics and Computer Science in alternating years.

The 2022 edition of the Awards will designate five outstanding scientific researchers in the field of Life and Environmental Sciences, working in the following regions:

Africa & the Arab States

Asia and the Pacific

Europe

Latin America and the Caribbean

North America

One candidate will be selected for each of the five regions, the determining factor being the place of work for at least 5 years, not the nationality of the candidate.

The candidate must:

Be recognized for her scientific excellence by the international scientific community,

Be actively involved in scientific research,

Work in any field of the Life and Environmental Sciences mentioned in appendix 1 (links).

For your information, there is no age constraint regarding the candidate.

Scientists around the world are invited to nominate candidates for the L'Oréal-UNESCO For Women in Science International Awards. To be considered eligible for an Award, it is necessary to be nominated in writing by an eminent scientist. Self-nominations are not eligible, nor nominations from immediate family members. Teams are not eligible for nomination.

Each of the five Laureates will receive an Award of € 100,000.

The Fondation L'Oréal will make the payment of the Award directly to the Laureates a few month after the deliberation and after having received the necessary original documents for the wire transfer of funds.
